From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks

Thanks to Chris Lowe for leading and coordinating our 2nd Annual Winter Wonderland Dance and to all who helped with preparation and clean up. Many of you volunteered to cook the food, decorate the space, and provide music and photo booth. Thanks to the local businesses who donated some of the needed materials to the event. They will be featured in our weekly bulletin in the next few weeks. Besides the fun that all participants had, the event generated over $2000.00 to help rebuild the Church in HeBei, China, which was burned down by fire shortly before Christmas.

Sunday Mass Schedule Change

With the increased activities, particularly on Sundays, our parish has been facing the challenge of the need for more space. This need was voiced during our Parish Transformation process in the year 2015 and it becomes more evident now. In order to solve this "good problem," and after so much consultation and prayers, I decided to change our Sunday 9:30am mass to 10:30am, effective on Sunday March 5th, the first Sunday of Lent.

This new schedule will allow our Religious Education (R. E.) students to have their Sunday class from 9:15am to 10:20am. Below are a few advantages for this change:

1. The R. E. classrooms will be available for meetings, RCIA classes, and Bible Sharing, taking place after the 10:30am mass.
2. The R. E. Students and Catechists will be able to join our community events scheduled after the 10:30am mass.
3. The R. E. students and families will have an option to attend the 8am mass before their class if the 10:30am mass is not convenient occasionally. The same applies to other members of our parish. This is partially why from Jan. 1st, 2017, we have been working to improve our 8am mass. This used to be called "express mass" - it now has been added with full service music and hymns, and altar servers. I hope this change will help our 8:00am mass attendees have a better prayer and worship experience on Sundays.
4. I will have time to visit our R. E. classrooms more frequently and to teach our Mandarin RCIA and Bible Sharing before the 10:30am mass as needed.
5. Finally, for those of you who need to catch up with your sleep-debt, you can have a late start on Sundays.

With this change, our monthly Indonesian and Mandarin mass will move to 12:00 noon on their respective Sundays and our yearly Italian Feasts with St. Rocco and SMI will be worked out accordingly. I understand that this change will affect most of you. I ask for your openness,

Make a one-word New Year's Resolution

By Pam Spano

Did you make any New Year's resolutions? Have you broken any of them yet? Would you like to change that?

Make a one-word New Year's resolution.

This was on a friend's Facebook page:

Some guy on TV said instead of making (and then breaking) new year's resolutions, people should set a one-word mantra that they wish to incorporate into their lives for the whole year, such as Health, Connect, Travel, etc. I think mine is going to be Pray. What's yours and why?"

I have not stopped thinking about this since I read it. Why? Because it put making New Year's resolutions into perspective. We overload ourselves with unrealistic goals and we become quickly discouraged or even bored. We can't focus so we don't accomplish much, if anything.

I was never one to make resolutions, because I was pretty sure I wouldn't keep them. When I read the above quote, I was struck by the simplicity of focusing on one thing and doing it well.

I definitely like the idea of "pray." I'm also considering: "write."

Make a one-word New Year's resolution. What will your New Year's one-word mantra be?

School News

Fr. Li leads St. Therese students in prayer, and reviews the meaning of the Feast of the Epiphany. Fr. Li also wrote 20 + C + M + B + 17 on each classroom doorway in the school as part of his blessing for a new year. The initials have two meanings: the letters represent Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar, traditionally the names of the three Magi, to whom Christ was revealed; the letters also represent the Latin phrase, Christus Mansionem Benedicat, May Christ bless this house!

CONGRATULATIONS! Ms. Phyllis Cavallone, Principal of St. Therese Chinese Catholic School, will receive the 2017 Lead. Learn. Proclaim. Award from the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA) for dedication and commitment to excellence. Ms. Cavallone was chosen from more than 150,000 teachers, administrators, diocesan leaders, and organizations dedicated to the nation's Catholic schools. Ms. Cavallone will be recognized during the annual NCEA 2017 Convention & Expo that will take place April 18-20 in St. Louis, MO. The annual award honors those whose ministry is Catholic school education and who have demonstrated a strong Catholic educational philosophy as well as exceptional ability, dedication and results.

"Witness by Your Life"

Every day many different images of people are placed before us. In videos and on TV we are exposed to who they are, how they look, and what they do and say. In them we witness the good and evil of our times.

In the reading from Isaiah we hear God, through the prophet, telling us what the Messiah will be like. "I will make you a light to the nation that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth." We know Jesus was the one God sent as Messiah. We know He spoke of Himself as "the light of the world." Jesus called us to walk in the light of who He is. If we follow Him we will have light in our lives and the darkness will not be a part of us.

We have been baptized "into Christ Jesus." We are a part of His Body, the Church. We are called to give witnesses by our lives. "In Him (Jesus) we live and move and have our being." We are called because of baptism, to be that light in our world today. There are many good people in our world. WE need to share the "light" we are. We need to witness to our faith in Jesus by the way we live our lives. Through our faith and love we witness to others what God has done in us and for us. We are called to reach out and share who
