From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks and Congratulations

Thanks to Lucy Wong for donating three pots of roses for our garden. Thanks to John Lin for spending hours to take care of our Garden this past week and thanks to Por Cheng for his help. Thanks to Elizabeth Masangcay for taking care of our Church flowers during this Easter season.

Thanks to our School students for leading in both the School and Church May Crowning celebrations. Their participation has been both memorable for them and for our whole community.

Congratulations to our First Communicants! We had a wonderful group of 14 children who celebrated their First Communion last Sunday. They brought so much joy to our community. We thank them, their parents and catechists.

Congratulations to Lucia Rita Maggiore, child of Matthew Maggiore and Martina Spalla! Lucia was baptized on Sat. May 5th in our Church. We rejoice with her and her family and assure them of our prayers and blessings.

Honoring All Mothers

Our community had three beautiful May Crowning celebrations---May 1st for our school and May 6th for our parish and SMI. As we honor our heavenly Mother in this special month, today we also celebrate our earthly mothers who are with us, and those who have gone before us. Mothers are very special people in our lives who not only give us life, but continue to mirror God's unconditional love for us their children. We all have stories of our mothers and other mothers and these real stories continue to inspire us, nourish us, and challenge us to be the best version of ourselves.

Mary Lucile May at age 10 describes her mother by writing: "Mothers are young and old, Kind of mean and sweet. My mother's the best of all, lovely and sweet. Her gentle hands, her soft touch, everything about her. She seems to be the only mother in the world for me! She is not like a neighbor or a close friend, but like a mother! When, oh when, there was a mother as sweet and lovely as mine, I do not know! But mine's a real good one!"

How would you describe your mother? How would you honor your Mom today?

Mary May Larmoyeux offers ten ideas for us to honor the special Moms in our lives:

- 1. Make a one-of-a-kind booklet for Mom, filled with family photos and hand-written notes.
- 2. Make a recipe book for Mom.
- 3. After creating a restaurant atmosphere somewhere in the house, children of any age can cook a meal for Mom and serve it to her.

4. Give Mom the gift of time—a day to go antiquing, have lunch, or enjoy dessert and coffee later in the day.
5. Make a corsage or arrangement out of silk flowers that are similar to the ones that were in her bridal bouquet.
6. Remember Mom with roses or a rose bush.
7. Write a poem or heartfelt letter expressing your love and appreciation to Mom.
8. Make ceramic impressions or plaster imprints of the kids' hands.
9. Give a gift that involves creativity, such as needlework or a craft
10. Host a tea party for your Mom and her friends.

For details, please see link: <https://www.familylife.com/articles/topics/holidays/featured-holidays/mothers-day/10-ways-to-honor-mom-on-mothers-day/>

I may add, remembering saying a special prayer for your Mom today and maybe even offer a Mass of Thanksgiving and Blessing for her.

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers!

Peace ~ Fr. Francis

Two New Ministries

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness." Currently, our Church is cleaned monthly. "Saturday Service Ministry" is a new initiative to add a second Church cleaning on the first Saturday of the month led by volunteers.

The second initiative is named "Caring Church Ministry." With all the robberies and violence that have been going on in our neighborhood and city, we would like to create a safe environment for our parishioners and visitors to worship in our beautiful Church. Training will be provided for this ministry.

You are invited to join both or either of these ministries. If you are interested, please let Fr. Li know by calling the office at 312-842-6777 or e-mail him at fli@sttheresechinatown.org

God's Mercy is Incomprehensible! ~Thomas Howard, DRE

It has been very uplifting to read the reflections of the newly baptized these past weeks in our bulletin. In particular, last week I was quite surprised to find out that I had played an indirect role in Peter Pon's journey to the Catholic faith.

You may remember how Peter's stubborn little back-seat driver named JJ quoted her religion teacher from her car seat, telling her dad in no uncertain terms that, "If you don't get baptized, you won't go to heaven! Mr. Howard really knows religion!"

While faith, good works and belonging to a community help us grow in holiness, humans should never ignore the depths of God's mercy. God loves us, even when we do not deserve it. Faith is an unmerited gift.

With the free gift of faith and God's infinite mercy in mind, I remember emphasizing these points with JJ last fall after she made this inquiry.

"JJ, God invites your entire family to grow in holiness with Jesus, Mary and the Saints. Going to mass, receiving the sacraments, and doing good works are wonderful things to do together as a family. Keep up the good work, JJ!"

God's mercy, not condemnation, is what ultimately attracts new people to the faith.

Come celebrate Mother's Day with us

Rejoice! Mom chose life! Mom gave life!
你們歡欣高興吧！母親選擇了生命！母親賦予了生命！

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY! 母親節快樂!

"Mom ...," said Deacon Shiu, immediately a happy laughter burst out from the entire congregation; and then slowly he continued, "... Monica, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, amen!"

梅執事剛說：「媽.....」歡愉的笑聲不期然就從整個會眾迸發出來；然後他慢慢地繼續說下去：「莫妮卡，我因父、及子、及聖神之名給你授洗，亞孟！」

Thank you, Mom! – 媽，謝謝您!

You stored love for me long before my birth. Enduring all sacrifices, you nourish and raise me so I may also serve and love others, and live the life that God has planned for me! Really, not only that God has blessed me with the gift of life, but He has also granted me the next most precious gift – you!

您在我出生之前就一直愛著我。您忍受所有的犧牲，餵養我和培育我，好讓我也能服務和愛護別人，過上天主為我所計劃的生活！真的，天主不僅賜予了我生命的恩典，他還賜予了我第二個最珍貴的禮物 – 您！

Each new life allows us to appreciate the utterly gratuitous dimension of love."

– Pope Francis @ Pontifex April 10, 2016

「每個新生命都能讓我們更加欣賞愛之絕對無償的層面。」 – 教宗方濟各 (4/10/2016)

Spring 2018

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Mother's Day is a day we honor and remember the special women in our lives who have nurtured, loved and shaped us into the people we are today. It is through their unconditional love that we begin to understand the depth of Christ's love for us, and his command to share that love with one another.

On Mother's Day, each of us will have an opportunity to share Christ's unconditional love with the poor and vulnerable through our gift to the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection. For Catholic Charities, charity is not just about providing material assistance, but acting with the same love and mercy that Jesus showed to restore people's dignity and give them the hope of a brighter future. Catholic Charities counts on our volunteer and financial support to offer comprehensive programs that get to the root cause of suffering, address multiple needs, and help people rebuild their lives for the better.

Pope Francis has used a powerful image of the Church as "field hospitals." During war, field hospitals are situated right on battlegrounds—close to the wounded who need help. Similarly, as part of the Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago, Catholic Charities 150 service locations are very much like field hospitals, helping those who are suffering, and located in neighborhoods that have sadly become like real battlegrounds, plagued with violence and despair. Catholic Charities program sites are safe havens in desperate areas and their staff and volunteers are truly ministers of mercy, providing help through a hot meal, a bag of food, a place to live, the care of a child or elderly relative, counseling, job training, job placement, or all of these things. Serving nearly one million people each year, Catholic Charities brings Christ's love and mercy to the people and the places that need it most.

Please accept my sincere gratitude for your past support of the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection, and please consider being as generous as you can again this year. Contributions can be made during the second collection on Mother's Day, anytime at www.catholiccharities.net/donate, or mail your gift to Catholic Charities, 721 N. LaSalle St., Chicago, IL 60654. May God bless you and those you love this Mother's Day and always. With every good wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago

"SHARE THE GOOD NEWS" ~Sister Caritas

Many people have others in their lives who are role models, mentors, examples of how to live, how to do something. We follow those who have gone before us and receive encouragement and strength from their examples. Eventually we have to step up and be the witnesses, the mentors of others.

Jesus had been teaching His apostles what was important, what to believe, how to follow the Jesus, how to do the Father's will. He had worked miracles, brought others to life and continually lived a loving life. They saw Him die, He arose and now He was to leave them physically. They were called to step out. "Go in to the whole world and preach the Gospel to every creature. Baptize them. Remember I am with you always even to the end of the world." Go into Jerusalem and wait for the coming of the Spirit. With those words, Jesus rose into the sky to be covered by clouds. They did not see Him again. After Pentecost they began their public ministry of teaching, preaching and baptizing. They preached the Gospel and it has been passed down even to us today.

Through our baptism, we have been given this same commission. Go and preach the Gospel. Be those who evangelize. We are to teach and share this special witness to Jesus. We know we are not alone. Jesus is with us. God dwells in us, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These words and examples of Jesus were handed on to us. It is our serious responsibility to hand them on to our families, to our friends, to others we meet. If we do as Jesus has said, we should, if we follow His example, we will also go to the presence of God in Heaven. Where He has gone, we also will go. Spread the Good News!
