From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks and Congratulations!

Thanks to all who helped with the decoration of our Church, hospitality and liturgical ministries during the Triduum. For the second time, our Church was mentioned at Boston Catholic TV for being so beautifully decorated. Many of you so generously assisted with all the tasks and roles we needed to have a prayerful and spiritual Holy Week. Your participation made our celebrations smooth and fruitful.

Thanks to our Young Adults for sponsoring again this year's Easter Egg Hunt. The weather was amazing and many children really enjoyed this wonderful tradition.

Thanks to all of our School children who performed liturgical dances and drums at the Opening Mass of the National Catholic Educational Association Convention presided by Cardinal Cupich on Tuesday April 23rd at McCormick Place.

Congratulations to our newly baptized: Lili Therese Wong, Ryan Fung, Betty Rose Fung and Jimmy Joseph Fung. You not only experienced new life in your own life, you have brought so much life and hope to our community. We rejoice and continue to celebrate with you.

Congratulations to Principal Debbe Oi, recipient of this year's Catherine T. McNamee, CSJ Award at the National Catholic Educational Association Convention this past week. This award is "presented to an individual or institution that offers exceptional leadership in promoting a vision of Catholic education that welcomes and serves cultural and economic diversity or serves students with diverse needs." We are proud of Ms. Oi and grateful to her leadership.

Divine Mercy Sunday

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, we are blessed to have Bishop Joseph Perry and all of you here to celebrate Confirmation with and for our young people. It is God's mercy that continues to gather us and empower us to say yes to the work of the Spirit in our lives. Today our young people will experience the Spirit and will witness that Spirit working in them and through them for us. We rejoice and celebrate with them.

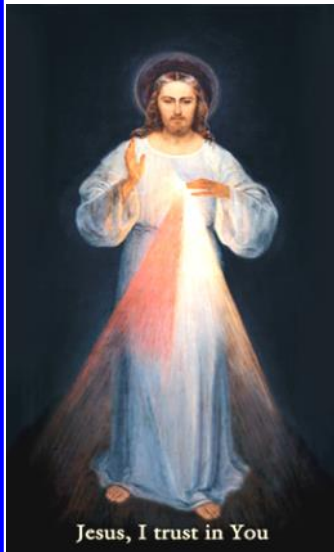

Devotion to the Divine Mercy is a powerful way for us to be witnesses of the Good News. Here in our parish we have First Friday Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by praying the chaplet of the Divine Mercy and having the adoration of Benediction. I invite you all to take advantage of this wonderful devotion.

Today due to Confirmation, we will not pray the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy together. However, after the 10:30am mass, and at about 12:30pm, you are invited to join Perry Lau to pray it in the Santa Maria Room.

I found the following description on Divine Mercy helpful and hope you do too:

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

Please see this link for the full article: <https://www.thedivinemercy.org/message/>

Peace ~ Fr. Francis

"Filled with the HOLY SPIRIT" by Sister Caritas

Each of us probably has a "running conversation" going on in our minds- "today I have to do this and then this, then go to the store and then call ...and so on." We reflect on what we think the day will be like. Often these conversations are interrupted by events or distractions. Eventually we return to our original "train of thought."

When we were baptized we were given many gifts by God. We received the gifts of faith, hope and charity. We also receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. As we continue to participate in worship, charitable acts and other Church events, these gifts grow. To some extent they become active in our daily lives. God's urgings help us be good people. God, the Holy Spirit interrupts our interior self-conversation with the idea to help someone, to pray for someone, to do some good action.

When we receive the sacrament of Confirmation, these gifts are increased in us especially wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. It has been my experience that many times I am asked a question and I find I know the right words or answer for the person asking the question. Afterward I reflect and wonder how I knew that information or answer. Perhaps I have never thought of this before. To me, it is the work of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit nudges us, show us ways to act at the best moment in the best way. The Holy Spirit helps us to pray, showing us things to pray for and gradually teaching us different ways to pray. Jesus promised us the Holy Spirit. Confirmation especially, known as the Sacrament of the Holy Spirit, fills us with these special gifts. We are enabled and encouraged to respond to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Follow the Spirit's lead. It will help you to daily act more and more like Jesus.
