Mother's Day and World Day of Prayer for Vocations

This is a special weekend when we especially honor our mothers who gave life to us, nurtured us and continue to love us unconditionally.

I heard a beautiful story on the radio two days ago. A guy spoke with his mother and told her that usually if a family has two or more children, parents would love one more than the others. So he asked his mother if she ever hated him since he has two other bothers and he was a troublemaker among the three of them. The mother laughed and responded by saying that she had times when she was not proud of his words and actions, but always loved him and continues to love all of her children.

This story helped me to reflect on my relationship with my mother and our heavenly Mother Mary. Indeed, the vocation to motherhood is extraordinarily noble. Mothers are called to give life in concrete ways and to love unconditionally.

On this World Day of Prayers for vocations, we are certainly grateful to motherhood and praying for all expectant mothers to respond to this role with pride and commitment. Vocations of motherhood can be an example for other vocations, particularly Religious Life and Priesthood. Both consecrated religious and priests are called to share God's life with all. Like mothers, they are called to do so with unconditional love and faithfulness.

When Pope Francis spoke on this particular day, his message on vocations involves a promise and a risk. Using the early disciples' call as example, Pope Francis says that the Lord always takes the initiative to call by offering them a promise: "I will make you fishers of men" (Mk 1:17). "Embracing this promise naturally demands the courage to risk making a decision. The first disciples, called by Jesus to be part of something greater, "immediately left their nets and followed him" (Mk 1:18)."

We live in a very different time and culture now comparing to Jesus'. Our Church today faces a serious issue of lack of vocations. Renew My Church in our Archdiocese is a timely reminder of this challenge. We not only have to pray for vocations, we must encourage young people to consider this way of life, we need show our appreciation to those who are faithfully witnessing this form of vocation.

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers!

Peace ~ Fr. Francis

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In the Gospels, Jesus teaches us to be a living expression of God's kindness, showing the light of God's goodness and mercy to all of our brothers and sisters, but especially to the poor, the vulnerable, and those facing challenging circumstances. Each year on Mother's Day, Catholic Charities invites us to be a living expression of God's goodness through our gift to the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection. With our support, Catholic Charities carries out the important work of the Church to help the poor and vulnerable in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

People often come to Catholic Charities at the most difficult times of their lives—hungry, afraid, hurting, alone, homeless, helpless, hopeless. Catholic Charities cares for people at these desperate times, helping them rebuild their lives and restoring hope for the future.

Catholic Charities provides a broad range of services to people of all ages and at every stage of life, regardless of religion or background. Whether it's helping young mothers with pregnancy and parenting services; offering educational and support programs for at-risk children and teens; counseling those facing addiction, mental illness or grief; delivering emergency assistance to families coping with homelessness and hunger; or providing affordable housing and a variety of in-home services for seniors, Catholic Charities brings Christ's love and mercy to the people and the places that need it most.

We each have an important role to play in the Church's sacred mission to care for those in need. Please accept my sincere gratitude for your past support of the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection, and please consider being as generous as you can again this year. Contributions can be made during the second collection on Mother's Day, anytime at www.catholiccharities.net/donate, or mail your gift to Catholic Charities, 721 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60654. May God bless you and those you love this Mother's Day and always. With every good wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

"In the Father's Hands" by Sister Caritas

One of the things I have paid attention to when watching little babies is how comfortable they are when held by their Mothers or Fathers. Grandparents are good substitutes but their preference is really their parents. To me, a sleeping baby in its parent's arms is the perfect example of our trust in God's hands holding us.

In the Gospel today, we have Jesus assuring His followers that He is the Shepherd. His Sheep know His voice and follow Him. He tells us "no one can take them (the sheep) out of my hands." Jesus assures us that we cannot be taken out of His hands or the Father's hands. We are protected by God. We are cared for by God and no one can take us from God unless we chose to follow them away from God.

So what does this mean for us in our everyday life? I think it means that we can have trust and confidence in Jesus' care for us. The Father, who is one with Jesus, will not let anyone take us from God and His love for us. He is our protector and our refuge in times of trouble. If we follow His lead in our lives, we will not have to be afraid. Just as a small child held in its parent's arms feels completely safe and loved so it is with us, Jesus' followers. In every way and in every situation, God is keeping us safe, holding us close... All we need to do is believe and trust and live these virtues out in our daily lives. We need to follow Jesus, the Shepherd.
