From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks

Thanks to Jing who led Young Adults and 华人喜讯 members for a fruitful service day at the Missionary of Charity's Soup Kitchen last Saturday. "It was a powerful experience and I will go back," one of them commented. They plan to volunteer there on a monthly basis. All young adults are invited to join our Young Adult Ministry.

Thanks to our children for singing so beautifully at the Family Mass last Sunday. Their participation is appreciated and important for them to grow in love with God and our community. Mass is one of the most important ways through which we teach our children about our faith. Thanks to all adults and parents who make it possible. We hope to see more children getting involved in our parish.

Thanks to Elizabeth Mansangcay for faithfully taking care of all the New Year flowers in our Church and for orderly organizing the linens in our sacristy .

Lent

Lent is a season of penitential practices and spiritual discipline. It begins this Wednesday, Feb. 26th, a day of fast and abstinence. Marked with ashes on our foreheads, Catholics are reminded of our mortality and our call to quest for immortality. For forty days, we pray, fast and give alms. These acts of spiritual exercise help us to humbly acknowledge our sins and seek for God's forgiveness and reconciliation. They also empower us to depend more on God in our relationships and discipleship. We are not the master of our lives, but God.

I find the following quotes on prayer and service from St. Mother Teresa very helpful for me to refocus my life in God and I hope they can enlighten you too.

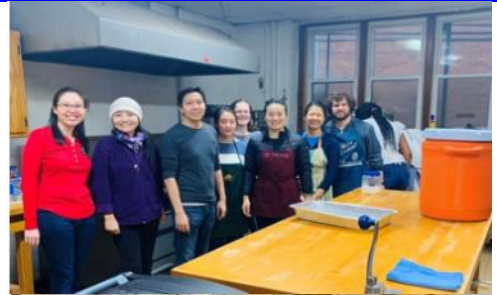

"Prayer is not asking. Prayer is putting oneself in the hands of God, at His disposition, and listening to His voice in the depth of our hearts."

"Prayer in action is love, love in action is service."

"I used to pray that God would feed the hungry, or do this or that, but now I pray that he will guide me to do whatever I'm supposed to do, what I can do. I used to pray for answers, but now I'm praying for strength. I used to believe that prayer changes things, but now I know that prayer changes us and we change things."

May you find time to pray, fast and give alms this Lent and may your Lent be a time of renewal and of transformative preparation for Easter!

Peace ~ Fr. Francis

4th Grade takes a moment to share warm smiles after Class Mass with Fr. Li, Joe Delfin, and Tom Howard. They also had the opportunity to share a tasty, savory breakfast and chat on a personal level with each other as a Christian family.

Godparents

EVERYONE BAPTIZED into the church receives a godparent. Godparents assist the baptized "to lead a Christian life in harmony with Baptism and to fulfill faithfully the obligations connected with it" (Code of Canon Law, 872). That means we ask very little or very much, depending on how you look at it.

To be a godparent you must be sixteen, baptized, confirmed in the Catholic Church, taking communion with us, leading a life in harmony with faith, and not a parent of the one to be baptized. Godparents may be chosen by the one to be baptized, by the parents or guardians, or even by the pastor or parish minister. A baptized non-Catholic may serve as a witness to the Baptism if a Catholic godparent also takes part. Only one godparent is needed, although two may serve. The Baptismal godparent becomes the preferred sponsor for Confirmation.

Very often people will ask a family member to be a godparent. This has the advantage of binding families together. However, a godparent from the parish community may make a better choice. A parishioner can set a good example for the child from week to week and can represent the role of the entire parish community bringing Christ to each new member.

Some families have further expectations of godparents of young children. They may expect a gift at the child's birthday or further assistance throughout life. Some godparents devote a lot of time with their godchildren; others do not. The church does not specify these extended responsibilities; families may discuss them with their godparents.

Godparents for adults play an important role during Lent. They support the catechumen at the Rite of Election and the scrutinies in addition to the rites of initiation. They usually are the sponsors who have accompanied the catechumens throughout their preparation. If the adult joining the Church has already been baptized, his or her sponsor remains a "sponsor" since a godparent already exists.

During infant Baptism, we ask godparents if they will help the parents in their duty as Christian parents. We invite them to renew their Baptismal vows together with the parents, and they may assist in lighting the child's candle. However, parents preferably hold the child for the Baptism.

Loving Our Enemies by Sister Caritas

Often I have seen situations where people take very good care of others but do not care as well for themselves, their own health and wellbeing. We work very hard at a job but we do not save time for our own rest, or our own family. There was a saying that often the shoemaker is the one with the poorest shoes or the doctor is the one who does not always care for their health.

One of the things God tells us in today's readings is to "love your neighbor as you love yourself." If we truly love ourselves we make sure we eat good food in the right amounts. We make sure we are healthy and we do things which are good for us. People who are not well may do things to themselves which are not good.

God tells us to love our neighbor as we love ourselves. God tells us to love our enemies. We feed ourselves. We make sure we have shelter and clothing. We try to have enough money so that we can do what we need to do such as have a car or pay transportation. God knows that we know how to love ourselves. He uses that experience to tell us how to love our neighbor. St. Francis De Sales says, "You can catch more flies, with a spoonful of honey than with a whole barrel of vinegar." We can win over our enemies by being kind, caring, and loving rather than by being mean, angry, or hurtful. Each person is to be treated with care and concern. We can pray for our enemies. Maybe, eventually, they will not be our enemies.

From Death to Life: Biblical Reflections on the Lenten Season a retreat with Fr. Donald Senior

Rev. Donald Senior, C.P., is President Emeritus and Chancellor of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, where he served as president for 23 years and is now a member of the faculty as Professor of New Testament. Fr. Don was ordained a priest in 1967 and received his doctorate in New Testament studies from the University of Louvain in Belgium in 1972, with advanced studies at Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati and Harvard University. He is a frequent lecturer and speaker throughout the United States and abroad, serves on numerous boards and commissions, and is actively involved in the inter-religious dialogue, particularly with the Jewish and Muslim communities. Fr. Don has published extensively on biblical topics, and he has received countless awards locally and nationally. In 2001, Pope John Paul II appointed him as a member of the Pontifical Biblical Commission, and he was reappointed in 2006 by Pope Benedict XVI and by Pope Francis in 2013.

The death and resurrection of Jesus stands at the heart of the New Testament and gives meaning to our Lenten observance. This retreat day will reflect on how the movement from death to life is a fundamental pattern of the Scriptures and is the basis for our hope as Christians.
